Decentralization solves the problem of trust of strangers well. People are not credible and the machine is credible. The holders of Space Doge coin are extremely scattered, and they are very supportive of the Space Doge project, giving great support. Every distribution of space doge coin is completely open and transparent, every space doge coin is available to follow, open and transparency is the cornerstone of the sustainable development of the project.

Community

Space doge project from the moment of birth, naturally has community attributes, its generation is from three father space dream, the development of the beginner's mind is to help human immigration to Mars, the community power is ordinary currency users and development volunteers, community is the power of the source of space doge coin, space doge will accompany the community's growing and obtain continuous consensus power.

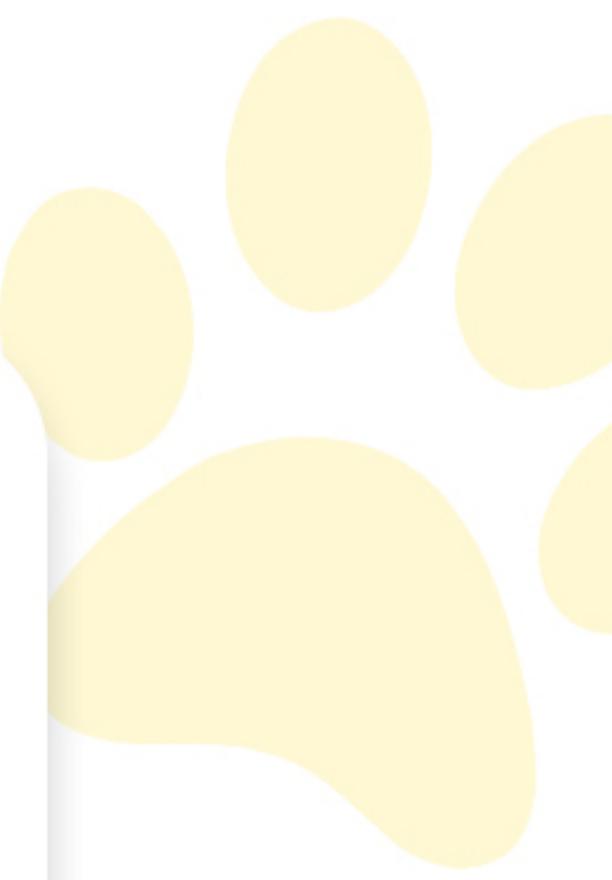

Faith

The most difficult thing in the world is to convince you that me, the holder of space doge coin, with a simple faith, this faith feeling comes from the first generation doge coin DOGE and the second generation dog coin SHIB, they are decentralized models, give us a good interpretation of how the grassroots reverse attack and how to earn time wealth with faith.

Long lasting

Space Doge is a sustainable project, its " save Human migration to Mars program", is a long-term and effective commitment to raise more money to help more ordinary people immigrate to Mars, let them gain the dignity as the rich, and be the disseminator of human civilization.

04 SPACE DOGE COIN

Binance Smart Chain (BSC), a smart contract based on efficient service entities, with higher speed and efficiency compared to other mainstream blockchain, and provides lightning swap transactions and financial derivatives services in addition to extremely low fuel costs, has begun to become one of the most widely used blockchain in decentralized applications. The token protocol developed by BSC is called BEP-20, is known for coming out in just three seconds, much faster than Dogecoin in one minute.

Genetic information of three generations of dogs

Space doge is unusual, it is based on the Binance Smart Chain, rocket-like fast block time of 3 seconds, 20 times the efficiency of the first generation dog coin (DOGE) and 5 times the second generation dog coin (SHIB). Space Doge is the only dog coin with currency dividends. 5% of the space doge trading fee is distributed to all currency users, and another 5% is injected into the liquid mining pool. Space doge is the only dog coin with eternal destruction mechanism. 30% of each 5% fee will continue to destroy into the black hole address. In the future, the number of space doge coin will become more and more scarce and more and more valuable.

The advantages of the Binance Smart Chain are:

- It is a proprietary blockchain that will provide strong security for all users and developers.
- It allows for cross-chain operation, double-chain interoperable user experience, fast and smooth. It is compatible with EVM, and will support transactions.
- Its chain governance, with unanimous proof of authority, built on the 21 verifiers that validate transactions, will provide devolved power and community engagement.

Space doge is not responsible for the behavior of the Binance Smart Chain network.

About 5% of the fee in every space doge transaction is immediately to all coin holders, which means you get a token reward without doing nothing, the happiest thing of the day for the holder. Space Doge is also growing up day by day every day.

Eternal destruction

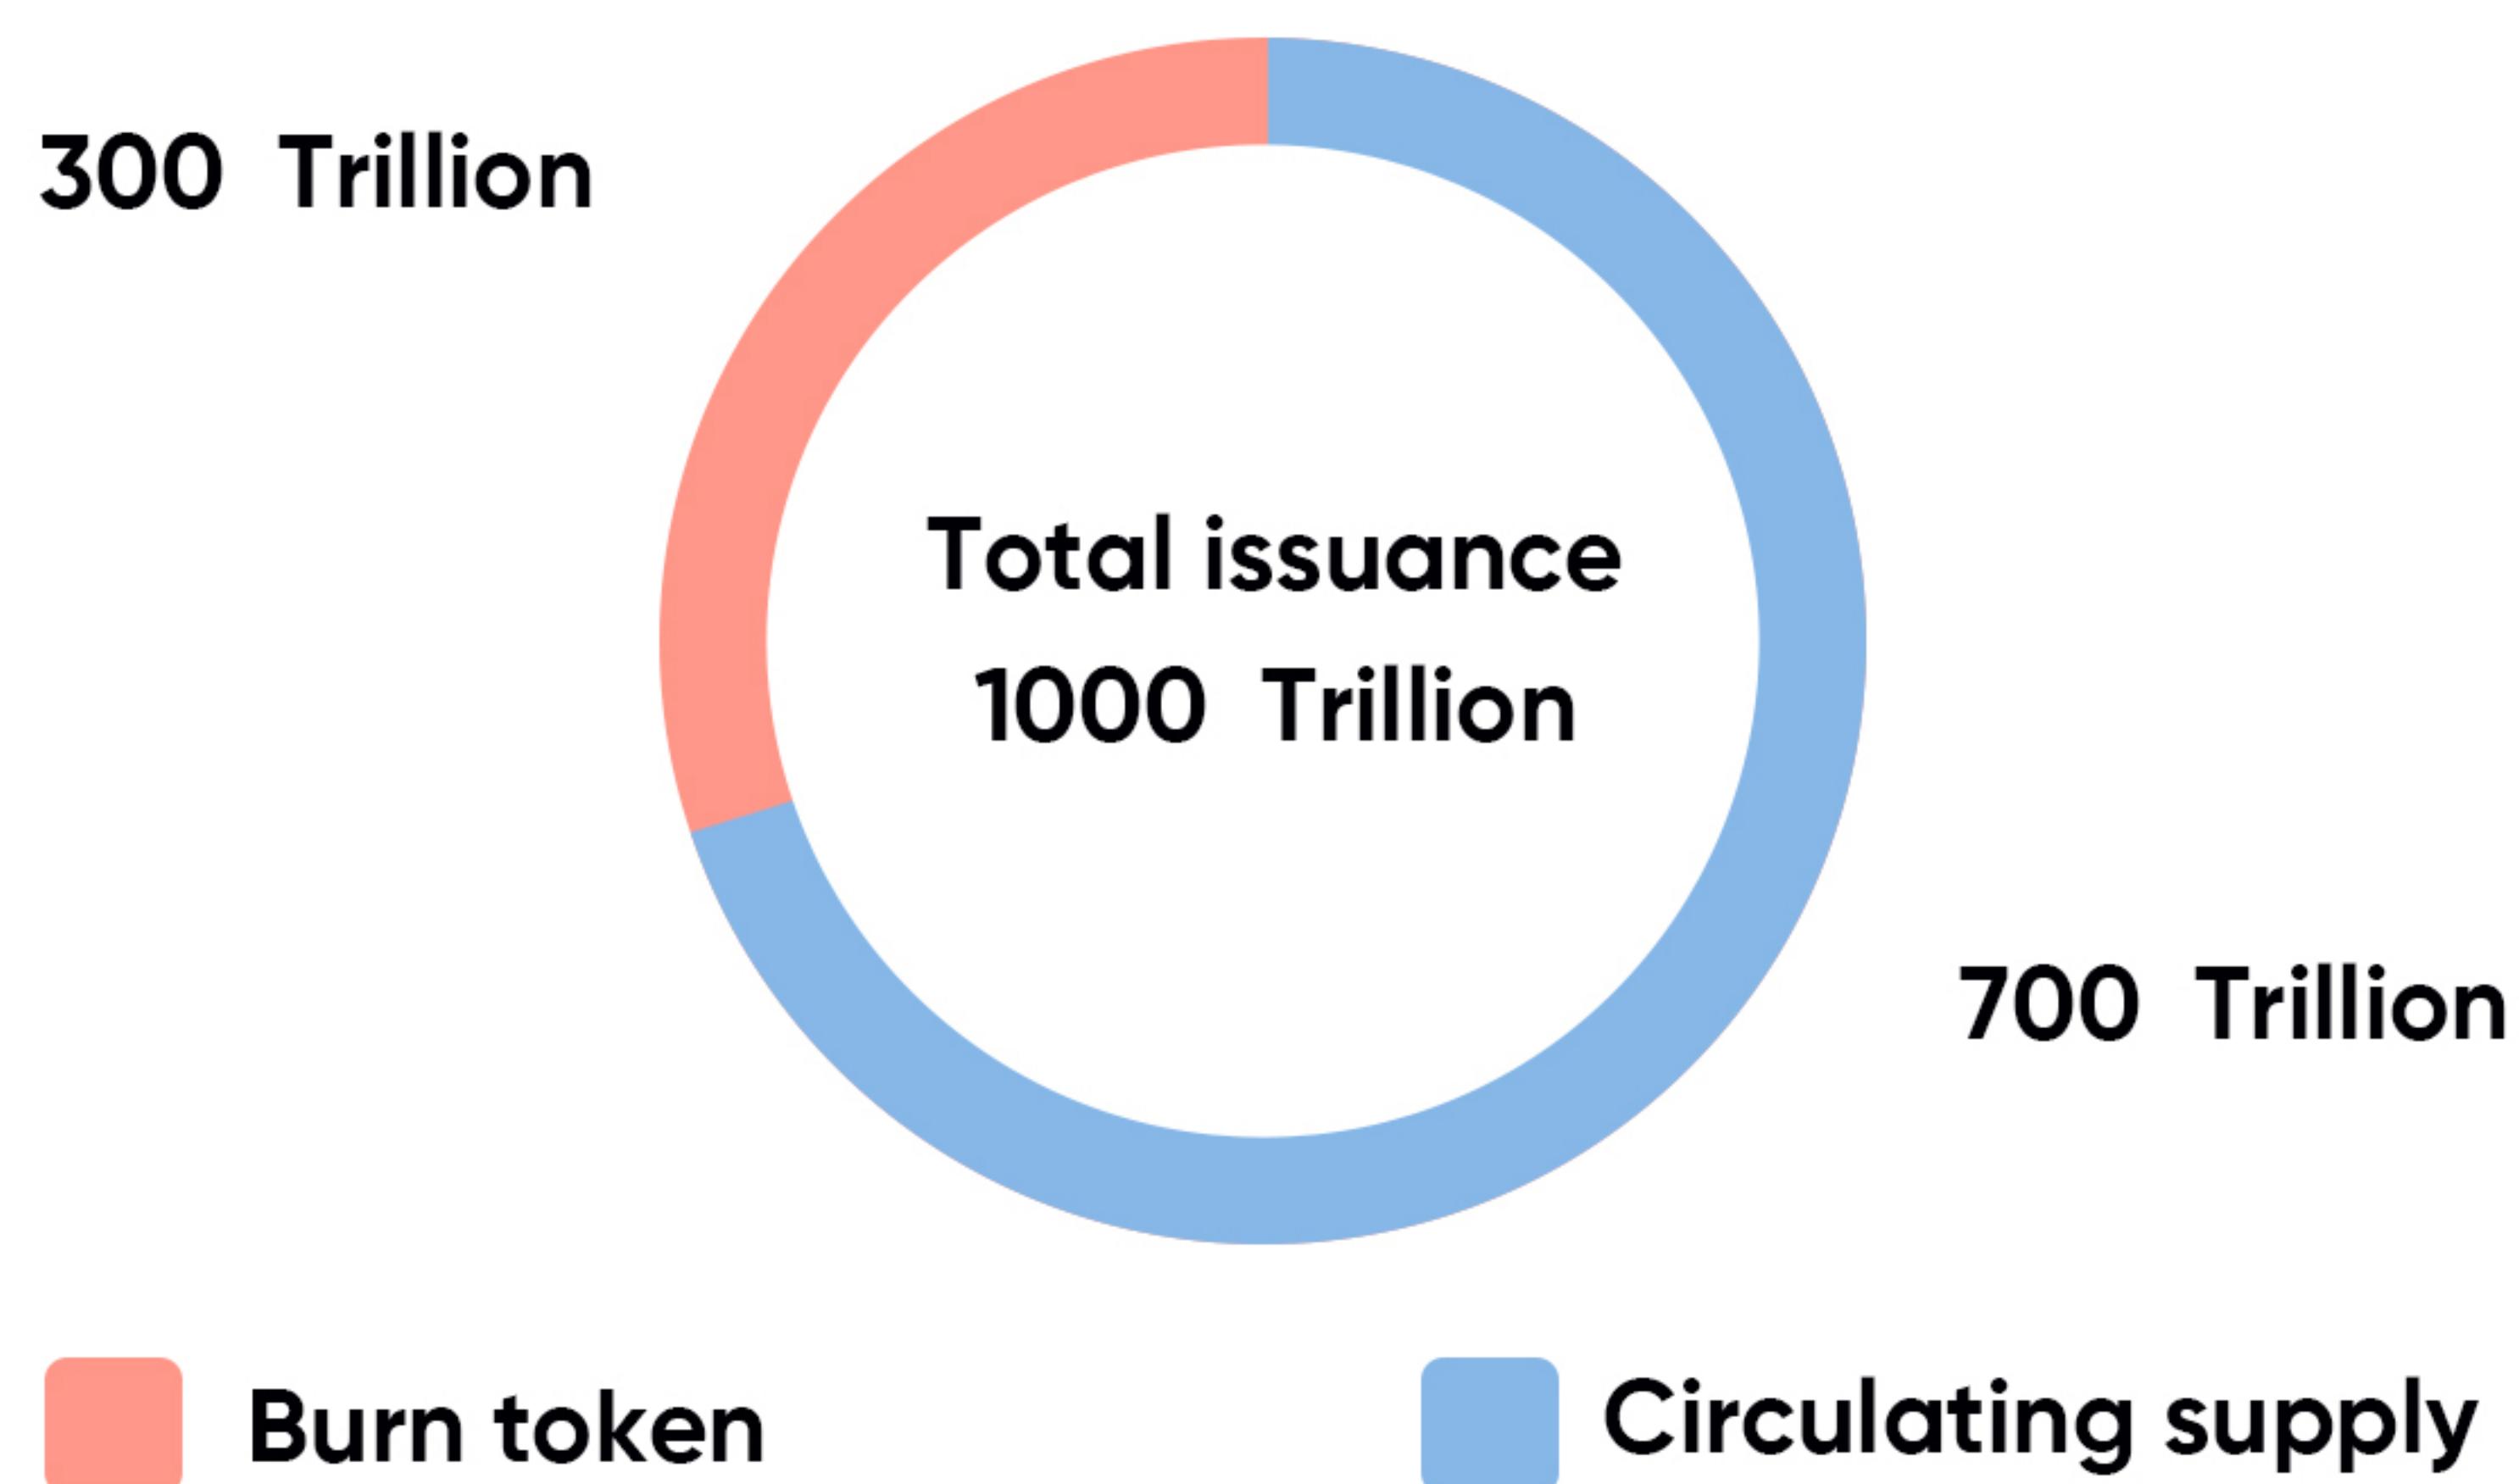

Space Doge adopt the eternal destruction mechanism, as long as the handling charge for each transaction on the chain is 30% of 5% will break into the black hole address, which means that every space doge coin will be extremely scarce and precious in the future.

Lock circulation

In the daily trading of space doge, 5% of all transaction fees are directly injected into the liquidity mine pool, providing transaction liquidity, increasing the liquidity of the flow pool, on the other hand, locking in the market circulation of tokens, reducing the selling pressure, and maintaining the purchase.
